

St. Camillus has established emergency preparedness plans for its programs and services. In the event of an emergency, St. Camillus will activate those plans and post information in this location about the emergency and specific impacts to programs, services, staff and volunteers.